

2020 VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

MIDGE NELSON

To be considered for the Museum's Volunteer of the Year award, a person must be a member of the Fort Atkinson Historical Society, display reliability, enthusiasm, flexibility, be a team player, volunteer more than 50 hours annually, and have a diversity of service, among other qualities. Well...this year's candidate was a unanimous choice, and very deserving!

Midge began volunteering in 2011, and has a fantastic personality, a beautiful smile, and a "can-do" attitude. Even when things get a little harried, she holds her own and remains unflustered. Midge is often seen at the Greeter Desk during our largest events. She is willing to serve on Saturdays, which is our toughest time slot to fill.

In her "free" time Midge is quite the baker, and makes delicious cookies for our events....literally hundreds of cookies a year! She also helps out at our special events, often serving in the kitchen. Midge is very involved in the community, in her church, and with her large family.

Thanks for spending your valuable time with us!

Congratulations, Midge!
